The Zephyr

It was under a new system that the MHS newspaper, the ZEPHYR, got under way for the 1972-73 school year. Two journalism classes, under the leadership of advisor Mr. Mello and Editor-in-Chief Cheryl Taylor, combined to produce the popular, weekly newspaper.

Favorite columns in the ZEPHYR included Bill Thomson's "Norman Fry" comic series, and Bob Hobbs' "Cong" and "Once Upon A Time." "Sally's Horoscrope," the gossip column, and "Zelda Zephyr" also provided amusements.

School news was promoted and received ample coverage under News Editors Robert Miller and Richard Stone, who also served as the paper's photographer.

Others on the editorial staff were: Features Editors, Sally Rae Uhrig and Susan Trainor; Clubs Editors, Eric Vaas and James Thibault; Sports Editors, Robert Walling and Lynda Morris; and Reviews Editor, Charles Nickrenz.

The reporters were: Donna Trainor, Mary Smith, Jonna Straney, Beth Foberg, Colleen O'Brien, Jean Thibault, Robert Faria, Liz Brooks, Steve Kristof, Peter Larkin, Lori Shepard, Donna Deloura, Lori Dierdoff, Robert Hitt, Eric Howland, and Joseph Medeiros.

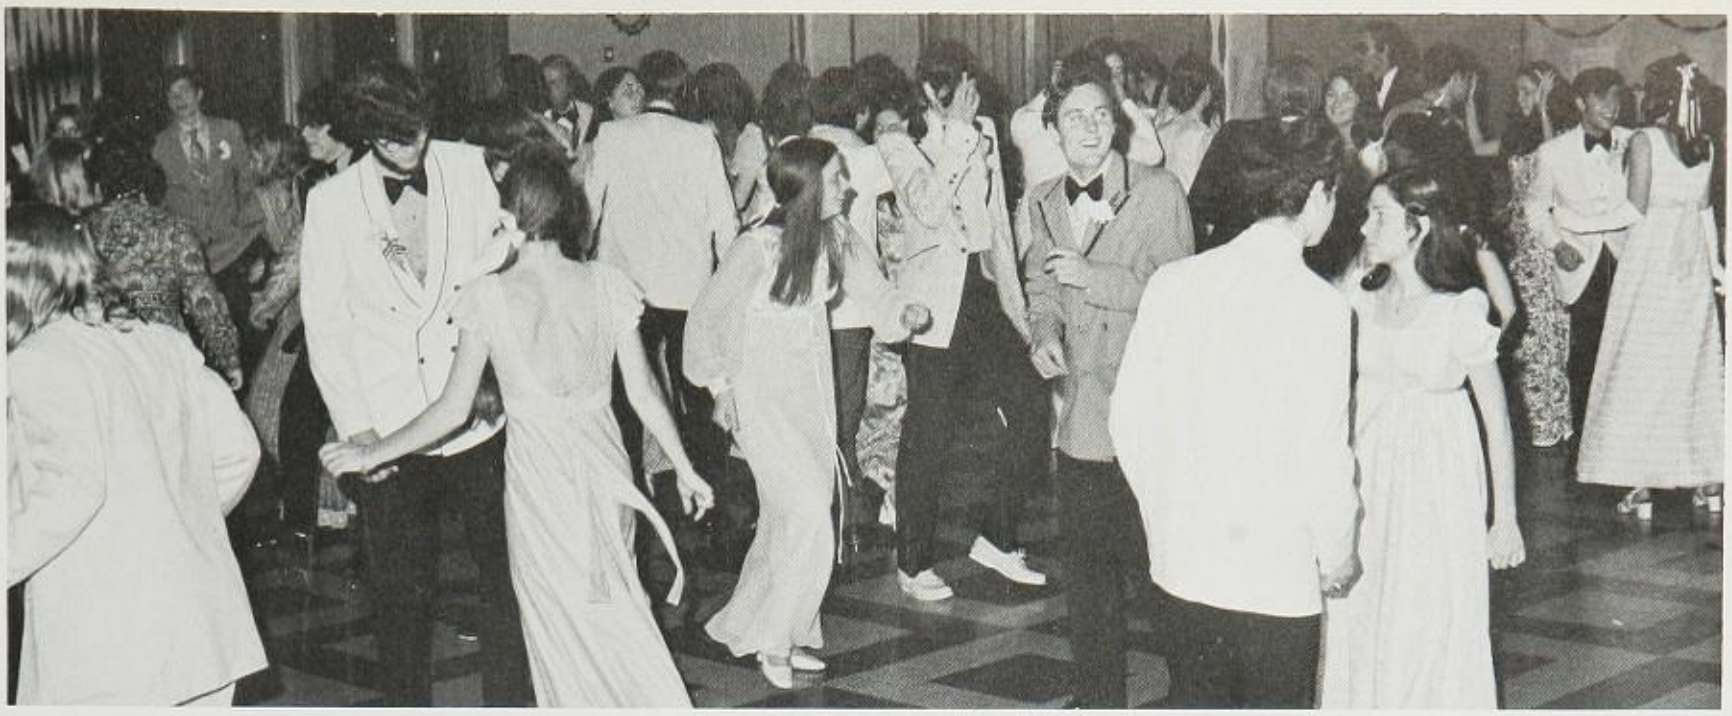
Junior Prom

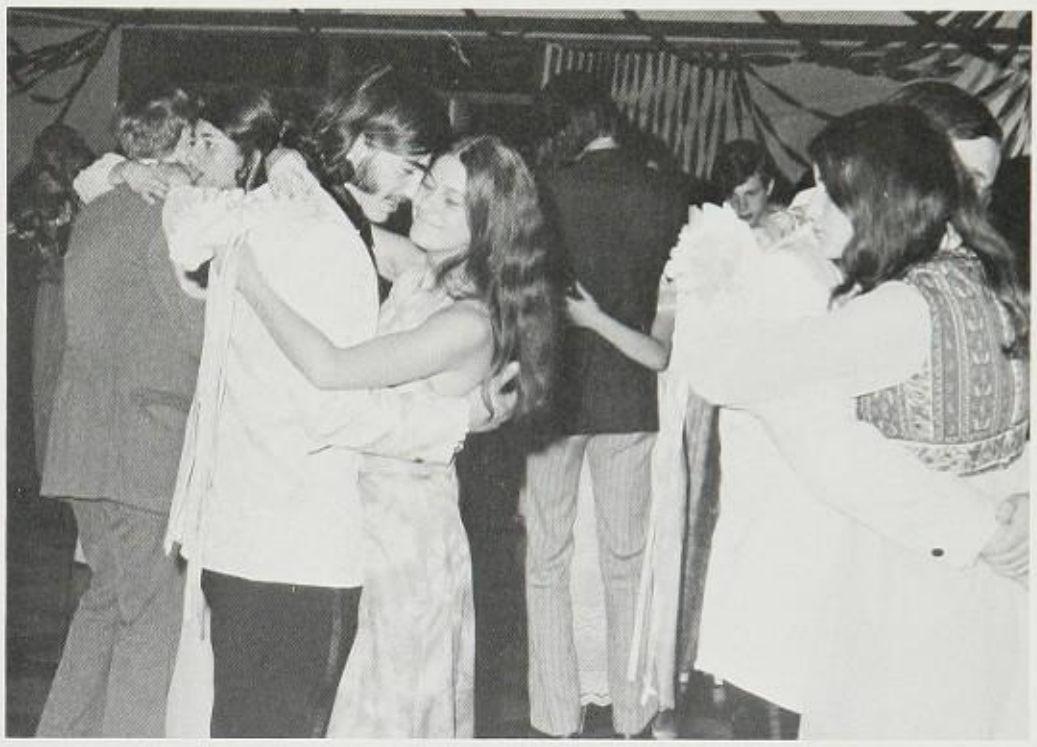
The crowning of lovely Prom Queen Karen Lorden by principal Phillip E. Coen.

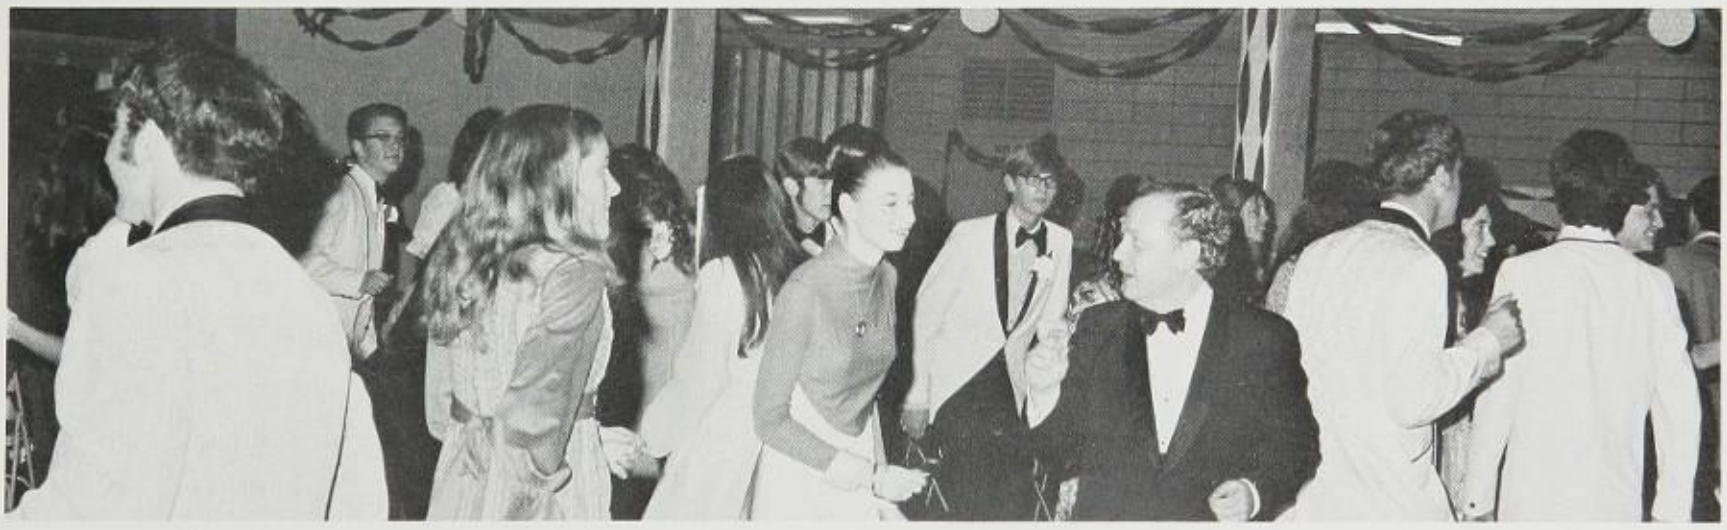
Memories ... Precious and Few ... May 20, 1972 ... gowns, tuxedos, and flowers ... a rainy morning but a starry night ... the grass covered bridge ... soft tones of blue and lavender ... flickering candlelight ... sounds of Society and the fun of their rock and roll revival ... lovely princesses Linda Taylor, Vickie Reynolds, Janet Stout, and Jill Morris ... the crowning of the radiant queen Karen Lorden ... a perfect evening down to the final notes of "I Can't Find the Time to Tell You" ...

"And if I can't find my way back home, it just wouldn't be fair, 'cause precious and few are the moments we two can share."

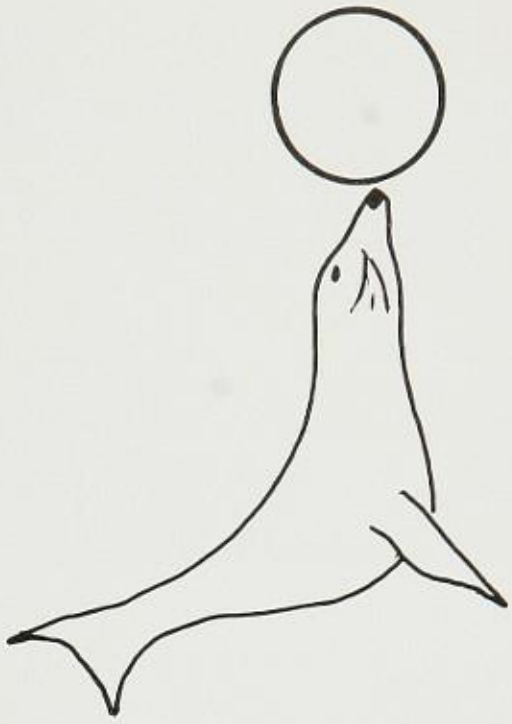
The Queen and her court from R to L: Vickie Reynolds, Jill Morris, Karen Lorden, Linda Taylor, and Janet Stout.







Thurber Carnival



October 20 and 21 were the dates for the second annual totally student produced and run production at MHS. Sponsored by the International Thespian Troupe 2220 "A Thurber Carnival," by James Thurber, was the name of this delightful comedy directed by senior Tory Tolley.

The large cast consisted of Dotty Hitt, Tom Erb, Elizabeth Westneat, Susan Thompson, Neil McNulty, Pam Graham, Mark Caverly, Ken Parks, Sue Brown, Steven Trickey, Michael Day, Damon Bell, Paula Rosput, Bernie Hightower, Sue Trainor, Susan Baumgartner, Debbie Trainor, Yvonne Mayo, and Mary Mahaney.

Stage manager David Gray, along with his assistant Bea Gummitt headed crew members Claire Chamberlain, Regina Mare, Andrea Trust, Shawna McGeown, Grace Beattie, Debi Hart and Mary Jo Leach. Bill Dunlap, Jun Arnold and Jon Craig handled the lights. Steve Trickey was in charge of properties, Kathy Smith was costumes chairman and Elizabeth Westneat, Sally Uhrig and Susie Keirns took care of make-up. Cheryl Taylor was the Publicity Manager.

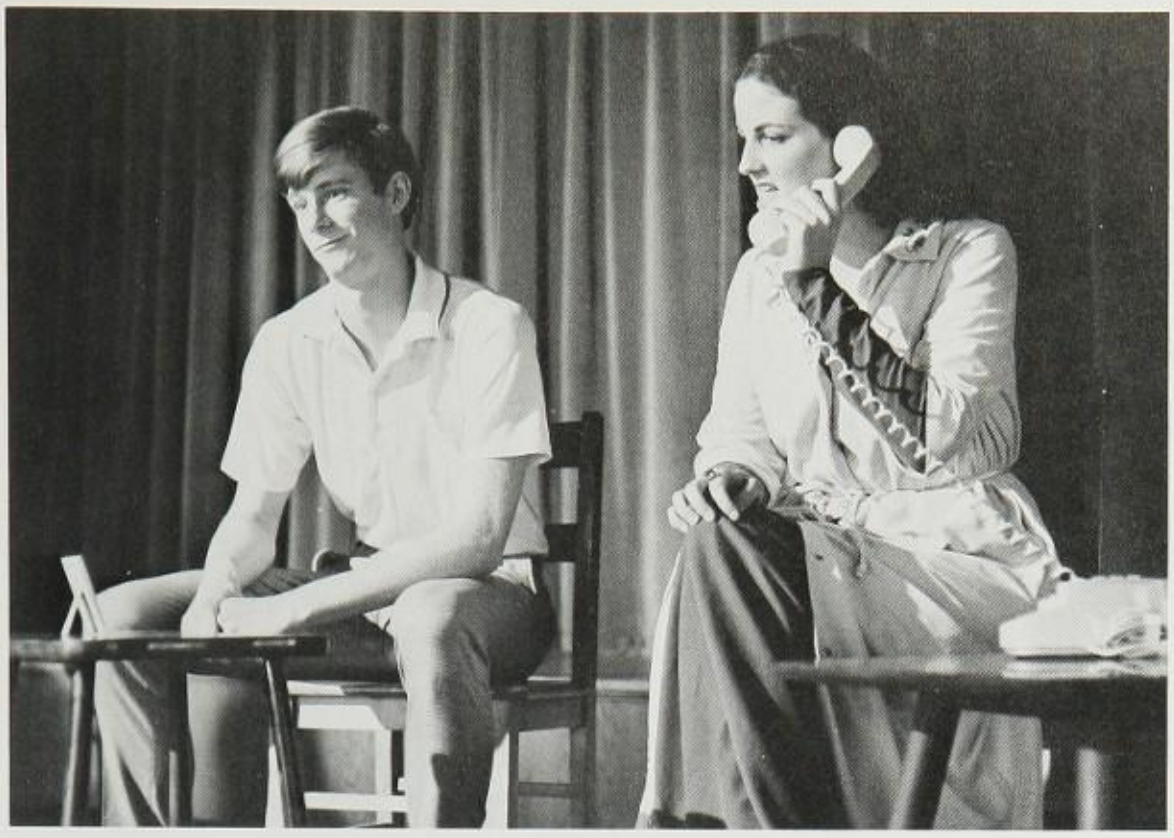
Kiss Me Kate



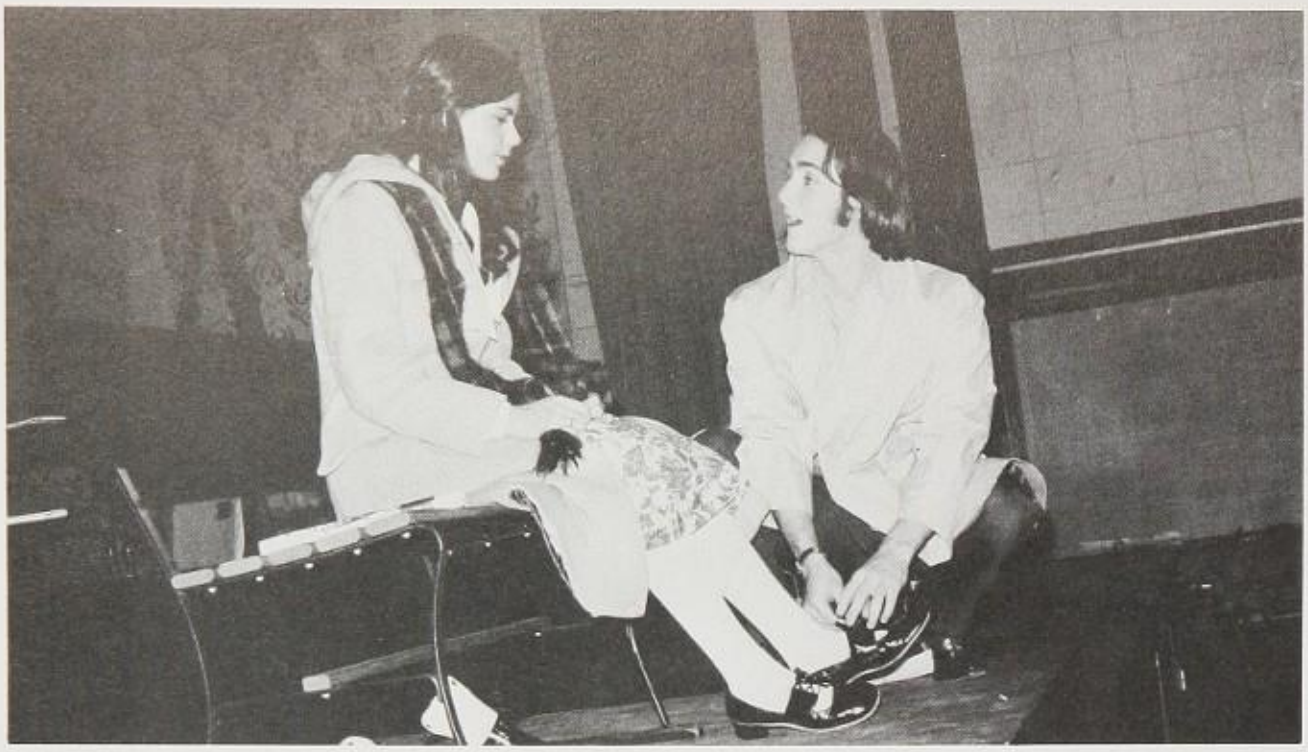
Last year's 1972 musical was "Kiss Me, Kate," a popular Cole Porter comedy based on William Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew." Directed by Miss Barbara Beamer and student directed by Tory Tolley, the production proved an immense success.

The leading roles were played by David Parker as Fred Graham (Pet Ruchio), and Nancy Demyttanaere as Lilli Vaness (Katherine). Mary Ann Poulin as Lois Lane (Bianca) and John La Pointe as Bill Calhoun (Lucentio) made up the supporting roles.

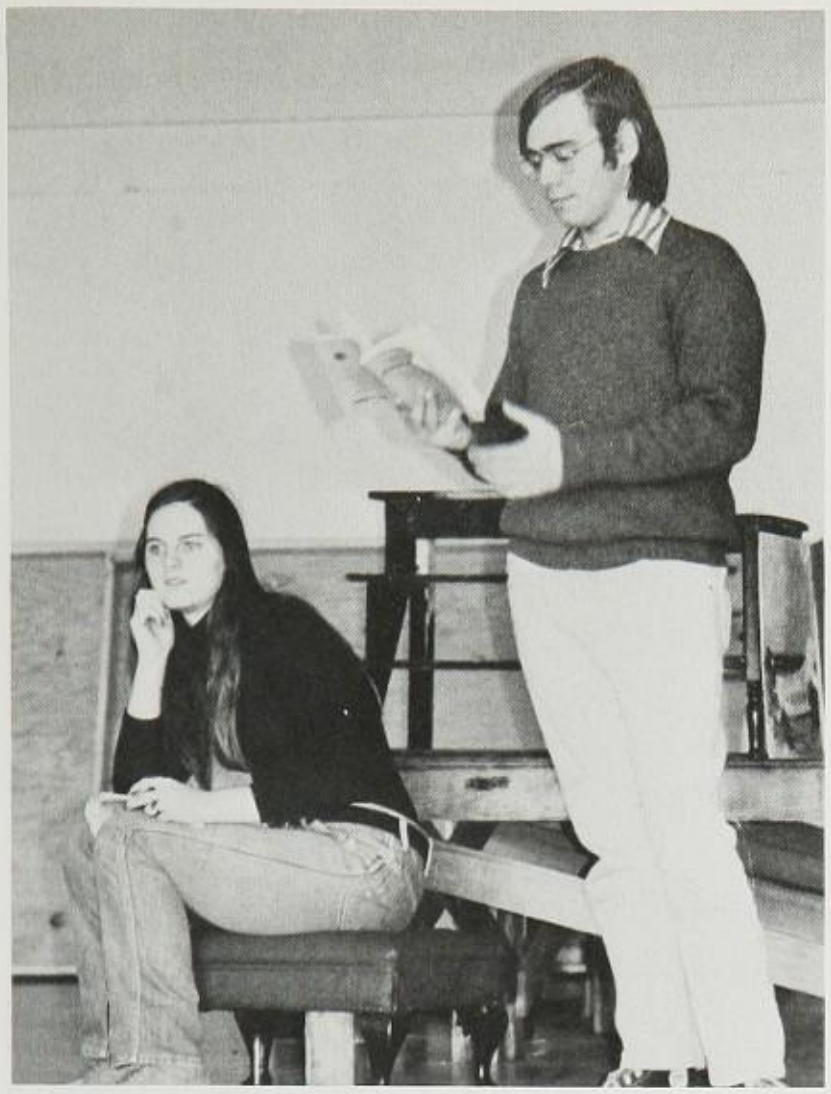
Others in the cast were: Richard Lawton, David Gray, Jo Ann Couturier, Tom Erb, Nick Toppa, Carey Nelson, Michael Day, Staige Kern and William Arnold.

With Mr. Winfred Johnson as musical director, the main cast was supported by an excellent orchestra, chorus, and dancing troupe.

Dancers were Susan Thomson (director), Mary Ann Mahaney, Susan Blair, Ellen Woodland, Christine Kirkwood, Leslie Dannin, Karen Wimbiscus, and Ann Kine.



Portrait of Jennie



On December 8 and 9, the Senior Class presented "Portrait of Jennie," a moving and dramatic story of the love between an artist and his lovely model. The highly successful production was directed by Miss G. Martin and was student directed by Mary Kay Smith. Featured in the play were Richard Lawton as Eben, the artist, and Sandy Taylor as Jennie Appleton.

Others in the production were: Debi Hunt as Miss Spimey, Carey Nelson as Mr. Mathews, Michael Day as Gus, Cheryl Taylor as Mrs. Jekes, Paula Rosput as Anna, Jamie Norman as Emily, Robert Hitt as Arnie Kunstler, and Tory Tolley as Britta.

The set for "Portrait of Jennie" proved to be one of the "best ever" in a show at MHS as it was constructed by Tom Erb. The lights were handled by Bill Dunlap, properties by Sarah McReel, and costumes were done by Rebecca Lawton.

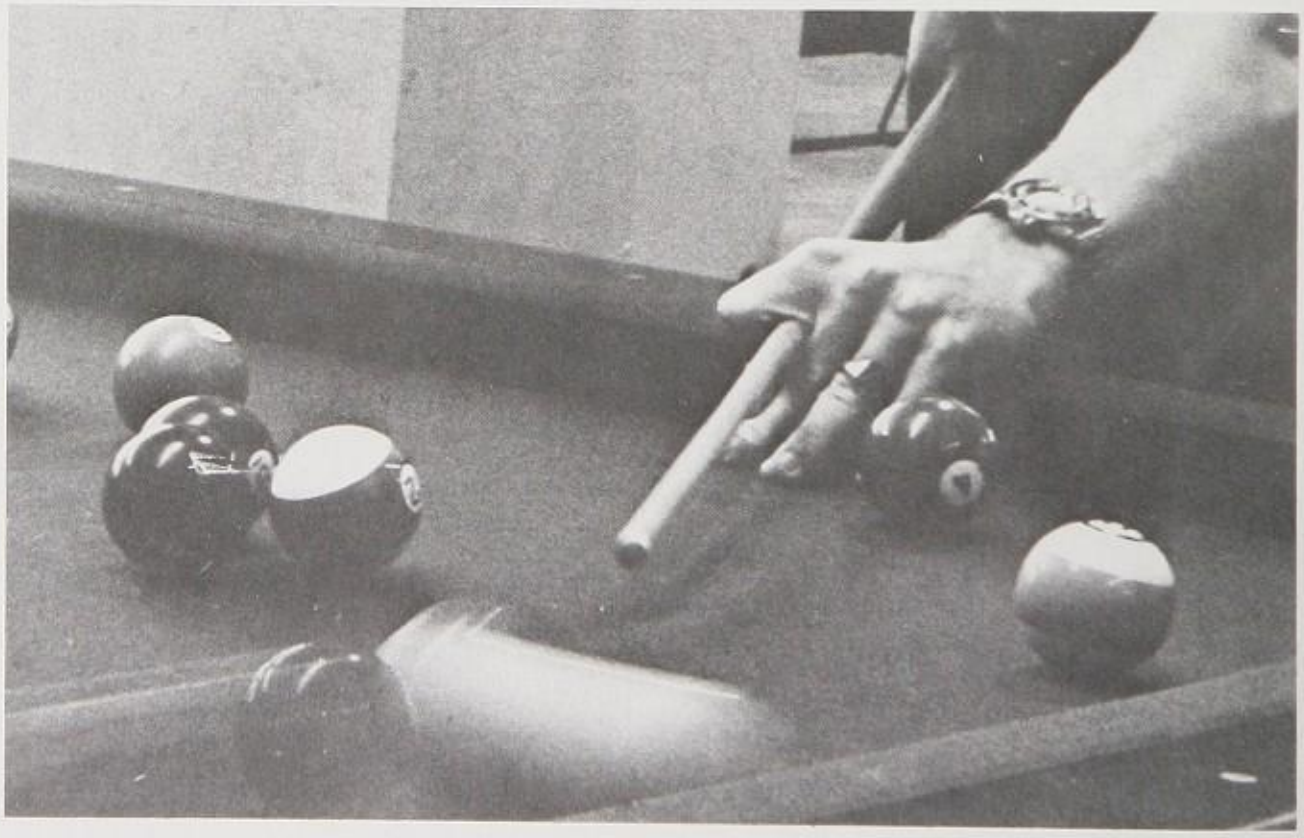
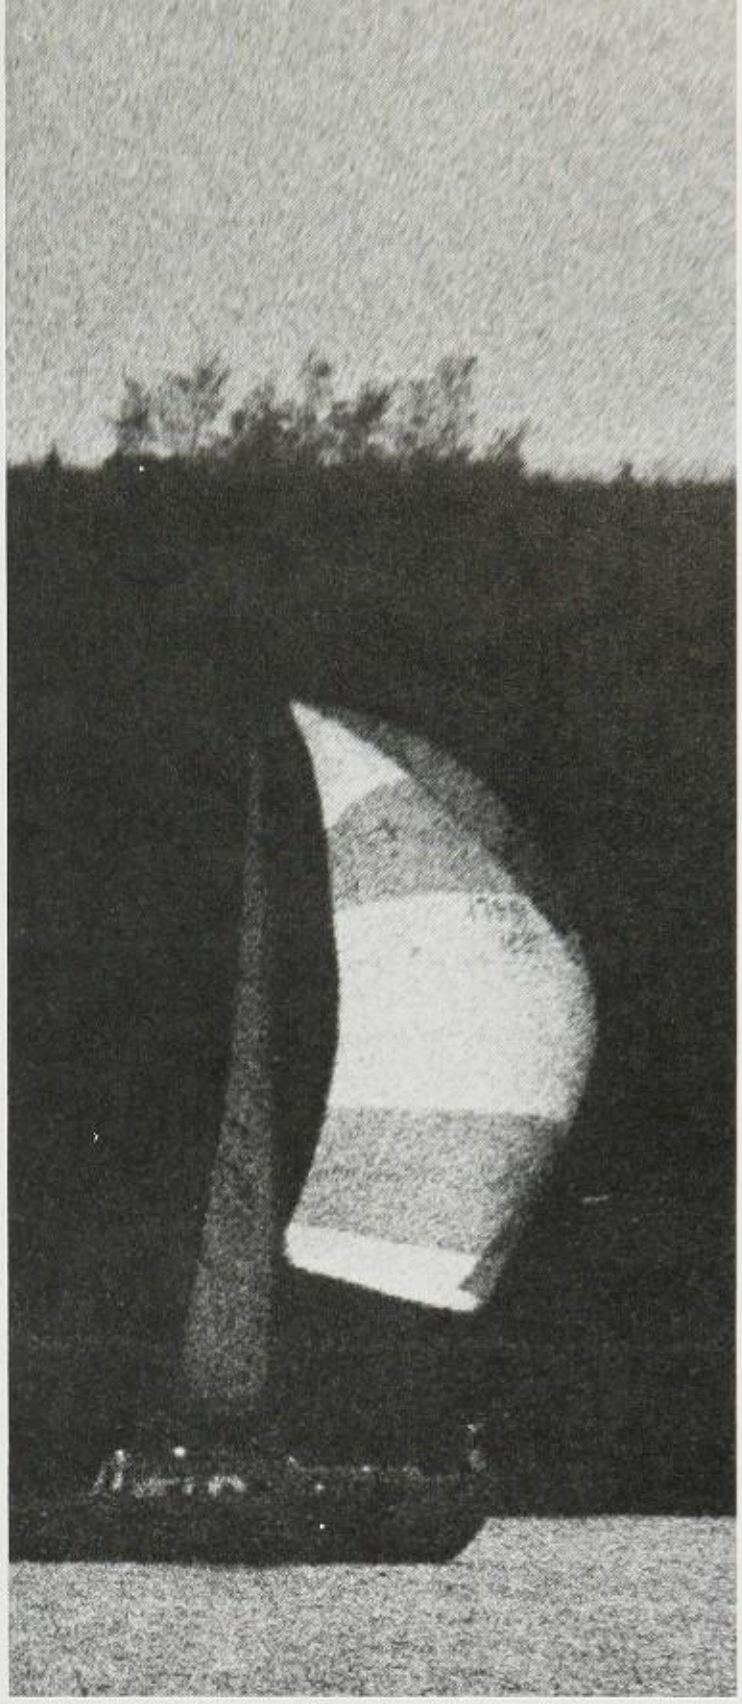
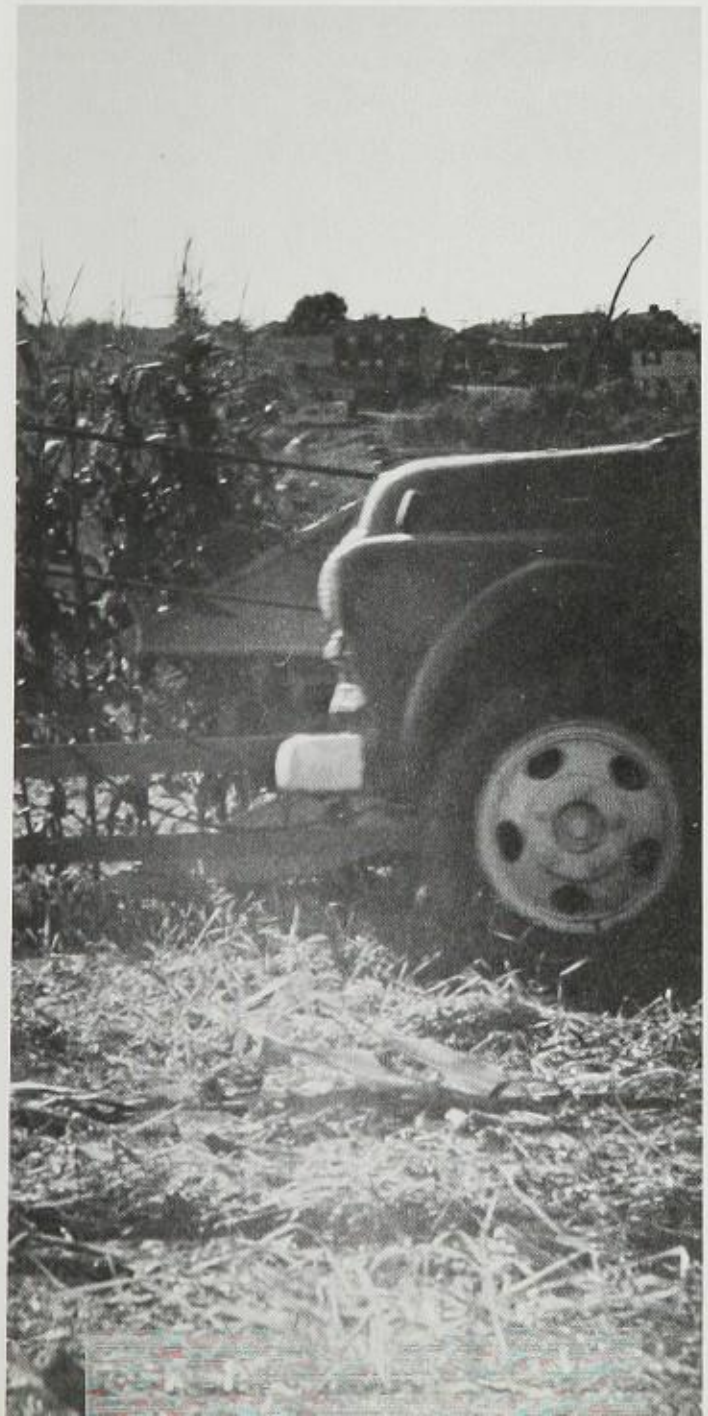
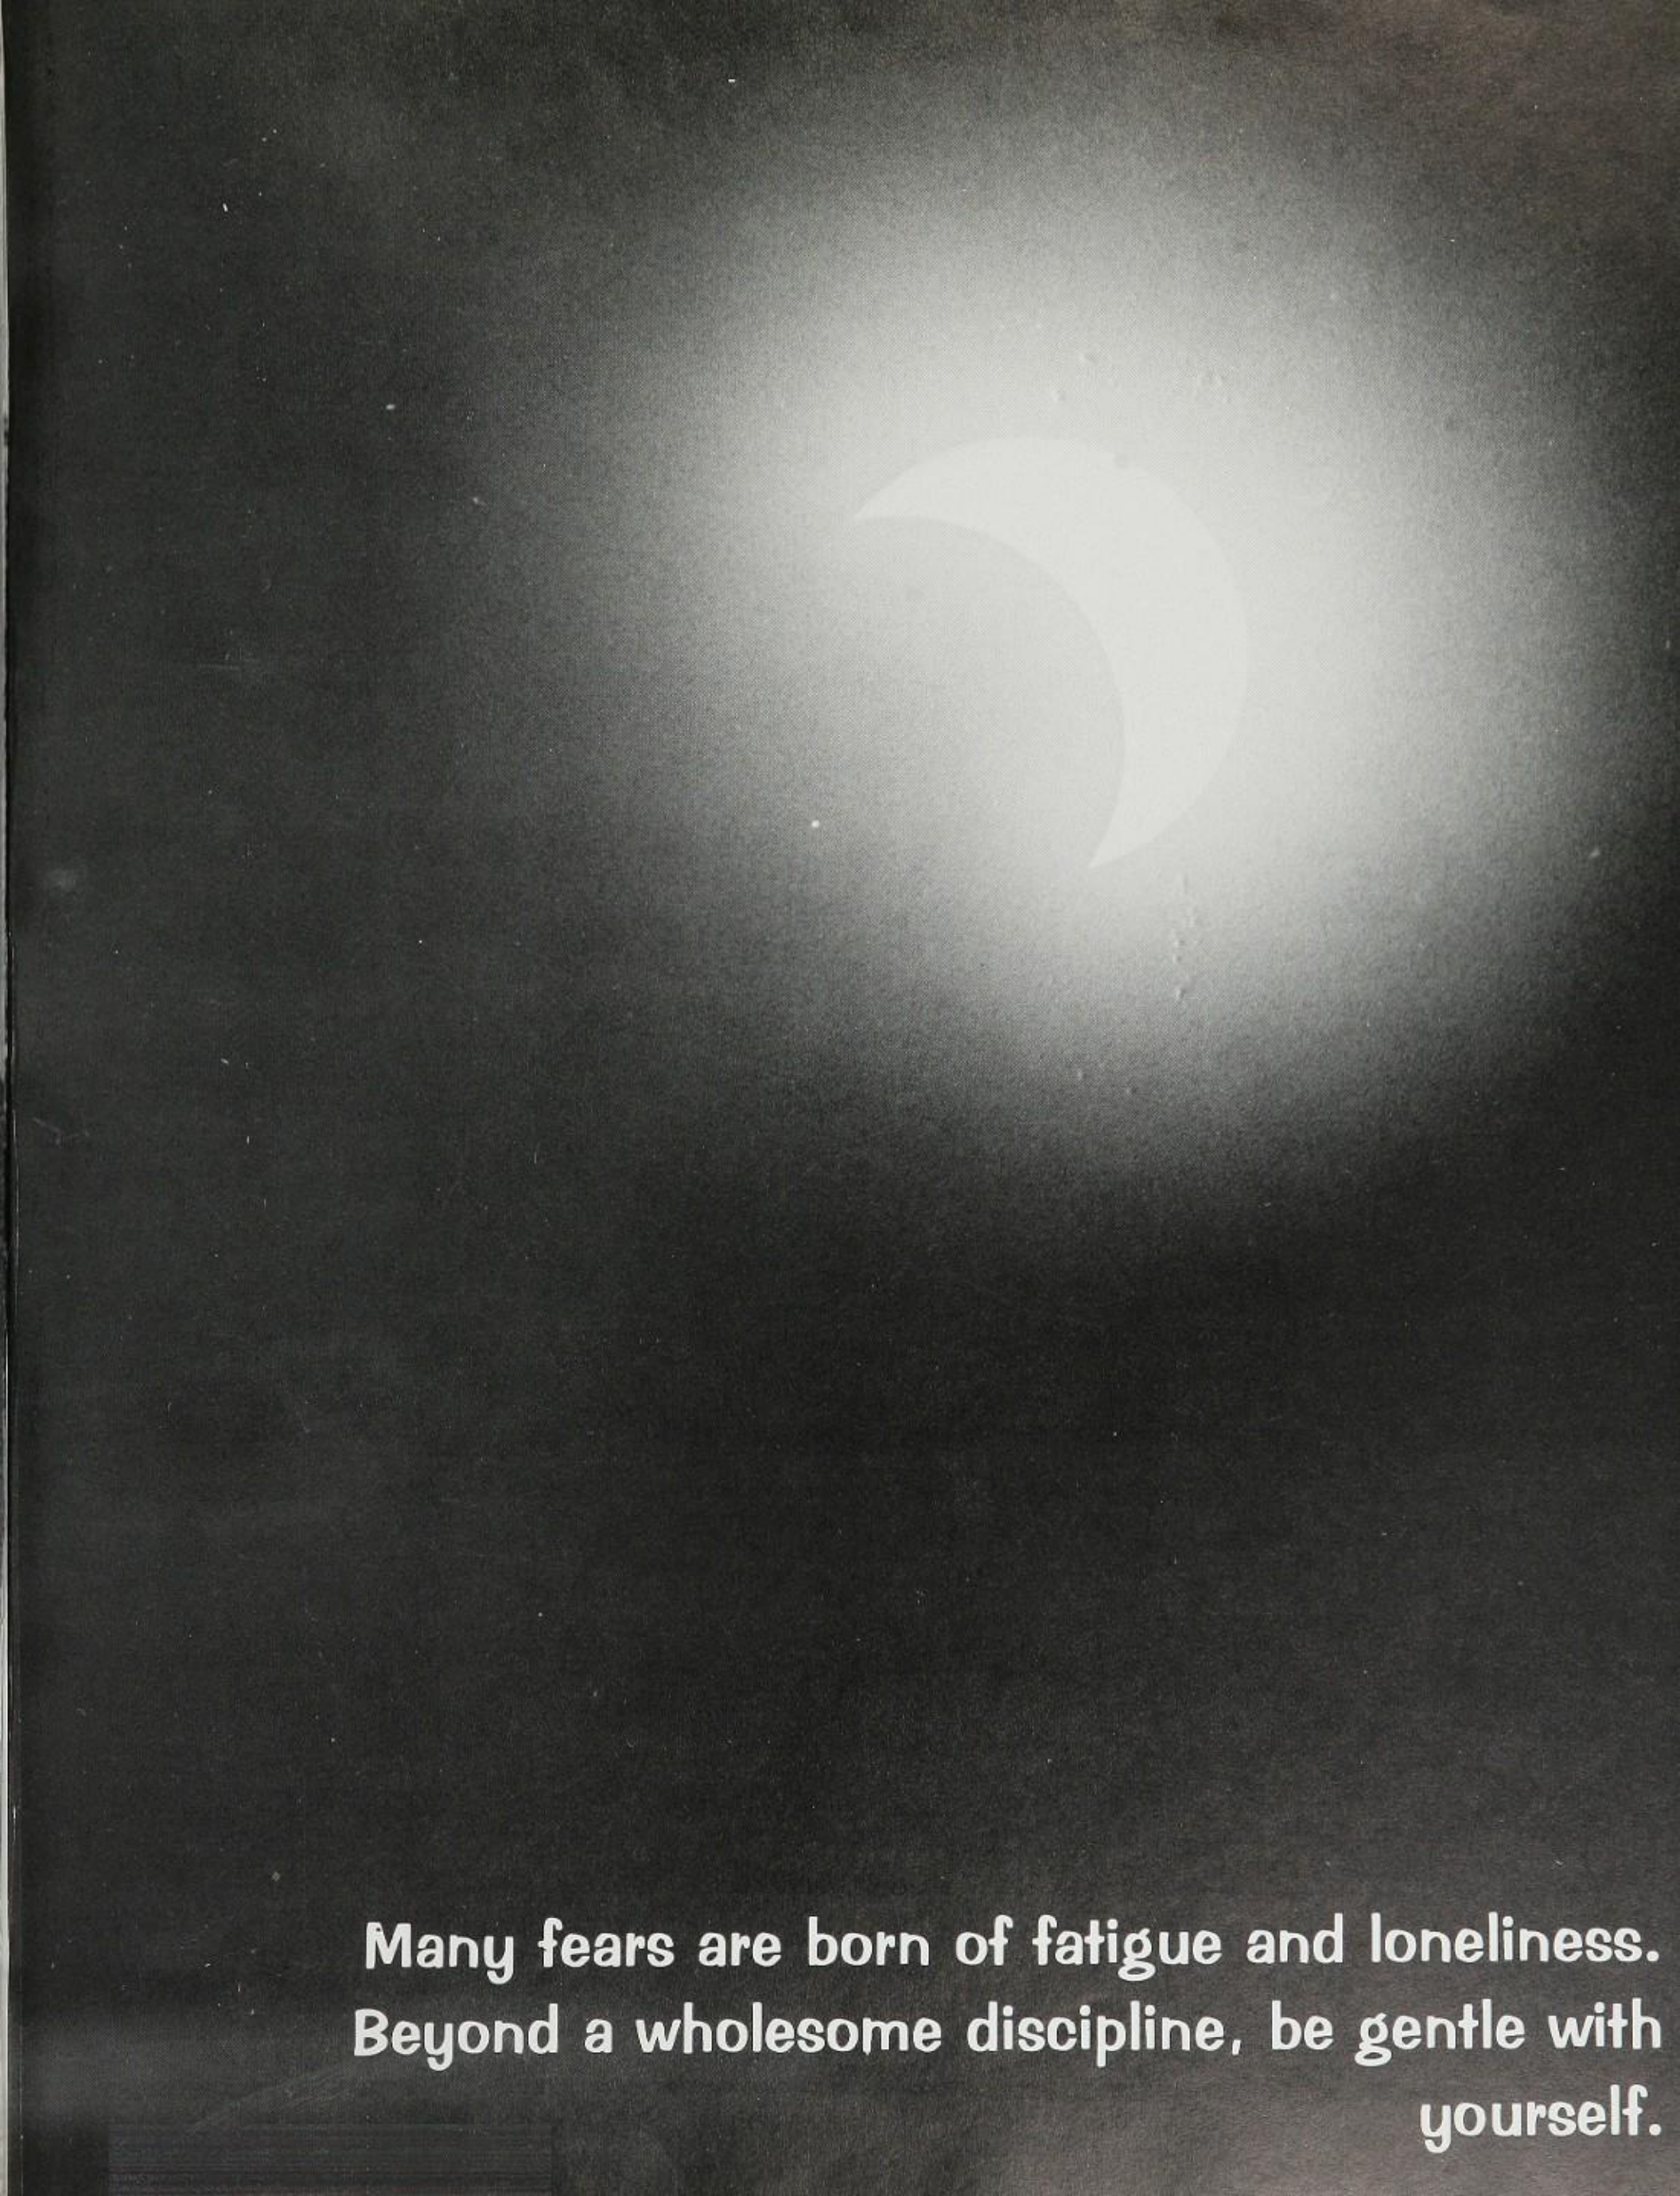
Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune.







Be yourself, especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.



Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.
Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep at peace with your soul.

With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.
